Farmers and Hunters Feeding the Hungry, Inc. invites hunters and farmers in states nationwide to donate deer, elk, and livestock to local butcher shops for processing and distribution to the needy through food banks, pantries, and ministries. The Organization compensates the participating butcher shops for processing and packaging the donated meat so that donors and recipients can participate free of charge. Developmental resources, training and support services are provided to volunteers who coordinate the program locally in their state. Approximately 73 tons of meat was donated and processed this year yielding 583 thousand meal servings of nutritious meat. The Organization also networks with other similar donation programs in various states, provides occasional financial support to such programs, and works to encourage increased hunter participation and public support for all such programs through education and awareness campaigns. Details regarding program activities, income and expenses are available upon request.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 2: The founder is a member of the Board of Directors. His son serves as the Executive Director.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b: The Form 990 is distributed electronically to the organization's governing body for review and comment prior to filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a & 15b: The compensation of staff members including the Executive Director is based on that of similar positions in the local school system, area churches, and other non-profit organizations. The Executive Director compensation amount has also been evaluated against the reported compensation levels for the same position in similar venison donation organizations around the country and found to be within the average range.

Proposed compensation levels are submitted annually by the Treasurer as part of the annual budget for the Organization, which is then reviewed and voted on by the independent members of the Board of Directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19: The financial statements were made available to the public on the organization's website and upon request. The governing documents and conflict of interest policy were made available to public on request.
